Press Release

air cargo China in Shanghai is cancelled

- Trade show was scheduled for June 16-18, 2020
- Cancellation due to covid-19 pandemic

The global covid-19 pandemic is growing in scale and is exceeding all expectations. In consultation with partners and associations of the air freight industry Messe München feels compelled to cancel air cargo China, which was scheduled for June 16-18 in Shanghai.

“Due to the current situation it is almost impossible for our exhibitors to plan their participation at air cargo China”, explains Xu Jia, CEO Messe München Shanghai. “The aviation industry is especially affected by the covid-19 pandemic. Therefore we feel compelled to cancel air cargo China 2020.”

“At the same time we are looking forward to seeing our customers again at one of our upcoming air cargo exhibitions, either this year in Miami and Istanbul, next year in Johannesburg or Munich, but the latest in Shanghai 2022”, says Gerhard Gerritzen, Deputy Managing Director Messe München.
